Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claim 13, drawn to a woodworking machine including an electrically conductive cutter, a detection system that detect a dangerous condition between a user and the cutter, and a brake system configured to raise and lower with the cutter relative to the frame that supports the cutter, classified in class 83, subclass 471.3.
 - II. Claim 15, drawn to a table saw including a rotatable blade coupled to a frame having a table and extendable through the work surface of a table, a brake means for engaging and stopping the blade upon detection of contact between the person and the blade, and brake positioning means for maintaining the brake means in an operative position relative to the blade as the position of the blade is adjusted, classified in class 83, subclass 473.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. For example, the invention of Group I which includes an electrically conductive cutter and a brake that is configured to raise and lower with the cutter relative to a frame has a separate utility such as it could be used without the rotatable blade that is extendable through the work surface of a table and a brake positioning means to maintain the brake means in an operative position relative to the blade of the invention in Group II. Conversely, the invention in Group II which includes a rotatable blade that is extendable through the work surface of a table and a brake positioning means that maintains the brake in an operative position relative to the blade as the position of the blade is adjusted has a separate utility such as it could be used without the electrically conductive cutter and a brake that is configured to raise and lower with the cutter relative to the frame of the invention in Group I. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purpose as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor or at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR. 1.143).

Comment

6. It should be noted that this restriction requirement was necessitated by applicant's amendment filed on 09/01/05 in response to the restriction requirement mailed on 08/25/05. Applicant has amended the claims by reintroducing original claim 15 that is directed to a different invention than original claim 13 and/or amended claim 13. It also should be noted that original claims 13 and 15 were grouped indifferent inventions in the restriction requirement mailed on 11/19/03.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Ghassem Alie whose telephone number is (571) 272-4501.
